Adoption Process and Fee Agreement

1. The adoption fee, in accordance with the current Tails to Tell Animal Rescue Shelter Ltd (TTARS) policy, must be paid in full before the applicant/adopter can remove the animal from the shelter or adoption environment. A 30-day payment plan may be available when adopting two cats/kittens.*
2. All animal adoptions will undergo a two-week (fourteen day) trial starting from the date the animal leaves the shelter or event location. During that time, TTARS will remain the primary owner and can require the animal be returned at any time for any reason.
3. The applicant can return the animal during the two-week trial at any time and will be refunded an amount up to the full adoption fee and the spay or neuter deposit (if applicable). A TTARS receipt will assist in the processing of the refund (administrative fees may apply). If the two-week trial has elapsed, the animal will be considered to be adopted to the applicant. After two weeks, the applicant owns the animal outright and will be fully responsible for the animal and its care (re: Owner Responsibility section of this agreement).
4. Absolutely no refunds will be given if the animal is returned after the two-week trial.
